EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Knapp are spending the holidays with friends in Boston.

There was a Christmas tree at the club Monday evening and the young people gave the cantata, "Foxy Santa" to a large audience.

Miss Edith Rudd of Nashua, Miss May Stiles of Concord, N. H., Miss Annie Smith of Morristown, N. J., John Babcock of Boston and Horace Knapp of Middlebury college are home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ranney of Lyndon were the guests of Mrs. Evely-nn Ranney Christmas day.

Miss Carrie Damon has recovered from her recent illness and returned to Newport Tuesday.

There will be a meeting of the fire district No. 2 next Tuesday at one o'clock at the vestry to decide the electric light question and other matters.

An Alarm at Night

That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand.
H. W. Casselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold.
Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house." C. C. Bingham, B. L. Terry, South Rygate, Stearns & Stevens, South Walden.

Lyndonville

Christmas Season Very Quiet—Personal Notes of General Interest.

Miss Nellie Davis has returned from Winchendon, Mass., where she has been spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Tarbell.
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Guild called on her sister at Evansville last week.

A very quiet Christmas this year with churches and schools closed and no public gatherings permitted.
But in spite of this, the Christmas trade has been excellent, and people have enjoyed the quiet home gatherings with the same Christmas zest as of old. Santa Claus has not been quarantined and we are sure he missed none of the Lyndonville children.

W. C. Gerry spent Christmas with his parents at Wheelock.

James Dexter went to Springfield Saturday to join his wife and daughter, and spend the holidays with Mrs. Dexter's parents. They will also visit Mr. Dexter's sister at Montpelier on their way home, returning about New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Shattuck and children with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buckley, were holiday visitors in Bury, P. Q., at the home of the McCauleys, parents of the two ladies.

The meadow south of the village has been flooded the past week and wears the appearance it usually has in spring. For a few days it was frozen over, and made excellent skating.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Vail and Miss Katharine returned from their western trip about a week ago, and came home to spend Christmas at Speedwell Farms.

Summer Stuart is at home from Norwich University to spend Christmas with his grandmother, Mrs. S.
Thompson; Clayton Fisher, Paul Cheney and Robert Wilson, also from Norwich; Lincoln Wilson and Homer Watson from Dartmouth; Ruth Butler and Evelyn Cheney from Boston University; Thela Powers from Smith College are among the students who are spending their holidays at home.

Miss Agnes McGovern is at St.
Johnsbury for the holiday vacation.
Bert Hines is enjoying a visit from his father who lives in Eden.

Mrs. G. M. Campbell is much better from her recent severe attack of bronchitis.
Mrs. Salmon Stern and Miss Isabel close their house this week and leave for New York to spend the rest of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kenney spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs.
Sam Moore, at St. Johnsbury.

Gilbert Campbell, Jr., is at home from Dartmouth for the holidays.
Miss Catharine Rexford of Ayer's Cliff, P. Q., recently visited at A.
W. Brown's.

Miss Vivia Swail has been clerking in Waterman's during the Christmas rush.

Mrs. Josephine Carr, who is teaching a special school in Taunton, Mass., is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Parker. In addition to her other work, Mrs.
Carr has this fall been teaching a night school in Taunton.

Riley Richardson of West Burke was in town last week on business.
The frame of W. A. Heath's new bungalow on Center street is now up, and being rapidly closed in.
Martin and White have the plum-ing and heating contract, and the house is to be about as fine as any in town. The interior finish is also to be very elegant.

Dr. Copeland was in Burlington last week to attend a special meeting of the State Board of Health to consider the smallpox situation. Local conditions are improving, but the epidemic seems to be spreading all over the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Griswold entertained his family for their Christmas dinner.

Charles Steele and family of St.
Johnsbury visited their relatives in town on Christmas day.

W. A. Bemis and family are visiting relatives in Claremont, N. H.
Mrs. Henry Mower, who is stopping with her daughter Mrs. Lougee in Springfield, Mass., fell last week on the street, breaking her arm and her nose. As Mrs. Mower is 74 years old her friends are quite anxious over her condition.

Will Harris has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, and under the care of a trained nurse.

Bruce Wakefield has been visiting friends in Ashburnham, Mass., where he attended school.

Will Delaney of Woodville, N. H., has been in town for a few days.
Mrs. A. E. Donahue has been ill with a hard cold.

Mrs. Josephine Bigelow has returned home after spending a few days in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drown were in town last week. Mr. Drown has been doing the electric wiring on Dr.
Davis' new house.

Mrs. Olin Abbott of Willoughby has been visiting her mother, Mrs.
Charles Phillips. Mr. Abbott, who has been in poor health for a long time, is gaining and they expect to move soon to Barton where he has a position.

Cleon Colby is at home from the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia for the holidays.
Elmer A. Darling went to New York to spend Christmas.
Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Huntley spent last Sunday with his parents at Stanstead, P. Q.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis L. Guild enjoyed their Christmas dinner with their brothers and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Guild at St. Johnsbury.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Powers of Stanstead, P. Q., were in town to spend Christmas with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Batchelder.

Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill of Newport were here over Sunday and ate their Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns.
On Sunday, Dec. 24, occurred the funeral of George Lee, an old gentleman who had been spending the last year or so with his nephew, Charles Lee. About Thanksgiving time his mind gave way, and he was placed in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, where he had a special nurse.

He was in his 75th year, a native of Barton, in the vicinity of which town he had spent most of his life.
He was an old soldier, enlisting in a New York regiment. Members of the G. A. R. post in this town took charge of the funeral services, which were held at his nephew's, Charles Lee's.

R. J. Cusson and family were called to Montreal Sunday by the sudden death of Mrs. Cusson's father, Mr.
Charron, who lives in a suburb of that city. He died of heart failure, being found dead in bed by members of his family.

Miss Belle Gleason of Philadelphia is a guest of her sister, Mrs.
Charles Gray.

Use American Liver Tablets.

one day last week from Arthur Guild's shop down the village.
Miss Mary P. Bradley who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs.
Fred McPhee, at Peacham for three weeks, returned home last Wednesday.

For the first time in 30 years there were no public Christmas exercises in this village but many families had Christmas trees in their homes. A company of young people wishing to celebrate Christmas eve appropriately sang carols beginning with "Joy to the World" on the street as a serenade at various places Sunday evening.
